

Call number: 00-00-101

ASUA Awards Banquet, 5/6/72

Summary created by: Summer Dougherty

Date(s) of creation of summary: 10/16/12

Notes: Originals on 7 inch reels. Master and circulation copies on CD.

Continued from 00-00-100.

More awards are given out. The outstanding student in chemical engineering is Stanley Firral(?). The outstanding student in civil engineering is John A. Miller. The outstanding student in electrical engineering is Miles Yerkis(?). The outstanding student in electronic technology is Robert J. Colbric(?). The outstanding student in mathematics is Bill Bennets(?). The outstanding student in mechanical engineering is Thomas O'Grady(?). The outstanding student in physics is Robert J. Widmar(?).

Normally presented by Mrs. Tilly professor emeritus of home economics, who is currently out of town, the Tilly Award for the outstanding married woman student is presented by Mrs. Tilly's husband, Gray Tilly, to Mrs. Charlotte N. Holk(?). Mrs. Holk(?)'s activities and accomplishments are read out.

Sally Wellman, assistant professor of home economics, presents the Stokely-Van Camp Award to Mary Peg(?), the Crisco Trophy to Kathy Smoyer(?).

A handbook of chemistry and physics is awarded to Larry J. Smith as this year's outstanding freshman chemistry student.

The tape ends.