

Ralph Bunche and William Field speak at the commencement exercises at the University of Alaska in Fairbanks, Alaska on May 22, 1961

Series title: University of Alaska Fairbanks commencement addresses and exercises

00-00-10

SIDE A PT. 2

Dr. Bunche talked about progress in third World nations. He said that the world offers challenges to the new graduates and talked about the role of the individual for making changes in the World. He discussed the importance of understanding human relations. He concluded with advice for the graduates.

Presentation of the graduates for the bachelor's degree. [many of the names can't be understood, microphone is hit often, and conversations near the microphone]

Presentation of graduates with a master's degree: Betty Ferrington, Marjory Johnson, Maddy MacDaniel, Homer Stummle, Rachel Thomas, Robert Zeke, Albert Watson, George Prentice, Richard Kirk, James Holling, William Markle, David Murray.

Ph.D. candidates: Syun-Ichi Akasofu, Howard F. Bates, T. Neal Davis, and Robert F. Lenard.

Commissioned officers: Allen Bartholomew, Brian Bundeen, George Cache, Sanford Gabriel, Paul Lavinovich, William Harris, John Hajdukovich, Albert Kilgrog, Dennis Pride, Raymond Nesbett, and Charles Stump.

Unidentified speaker addresses the graduating class.

Student speaker.