This tape is an interview with George Edwin, Alfred Starr and David Henry on the banks of the Tanana River on June 9th, 1972.

George goes to get his prayer book. He recites the Lord's Prayer in his own language (Lower Tanana language?).

George reads another religious text in his own language.

Paul William and Arthur Wright helped with the translation of the prayer books from English into Athabaskan. They discuss the translation of the prayer books.

They discuss the location of the old church. There was an old mission, where only Native people went, and a town church.

George gives the name of the prayer book in his language. He recites another text.

George sings a song in his language to the tune "O Come, All Ye Faithful" and part of another song.

George speaks in his language. The tape cuts out.
