

H76-06-01/02

Ralph "Curly" Anderson

Neville Jacobs, interviewer

Anchorage, Alaska

September 1974

H76-06-01 Ralph Anderson talks about whaling in Sitka in 1920, the type of whales he hunted, working on the Alaska Railroad construction, working as a driller and blaster at the Alaska Juneau Mine, working on gold mining operations in the Fairbanks area, walking from Fairbanks to McGrath on snowshoes, his dog team, working for the Road Commission in Takotna, gold mining and trapping in the Takotna area, and fishing in Bristol Bay with sailboats.

H76-06-02 Ralph Anderson talks about working at the Red Devil mine on the Kuskokwim River.