St. Joseph's Hospital visits

Before June 6

Harry Hughes and Frank Young, interviewer

Paul Telphy [Telphie, Delphie?] is interviewed briefly by Harrie Hughes. Sam York is interviewed by Harrie Hughes. Sam is hospitalized at the time of the interview. Sam talks about having all of his teeth pulled fourteen years ago. Sam talked about a couple of cooks when he had a trapline. Someone asked Sam when he came to the country. Sam said he arrived in California in 1906. He had lived in San Francisco for four years. He moved to Alaska in 1910. He prospected in different places. He mined for two years at Homestead Mine. Nick was his partner. He talked about Ernest Peterson from Livengood. He sold out to Frank Miller. The first year they made a little money. It was hard work. They worked long days. He met Frank Young in 1926 or 1927. Sam ran a trapline and was also a musician. He played the guitar. Sam talked about Charlie Karl.
