Julian A. Hurley was born on April 1, 1885 in Oregon. He studied law and came to Alaska in 1922. He was appointed as the assistant United States attorney in Anchorage. There were only a few other attorneys in Anchorage at the time he arrived in Alaska. They took the census when he was in Anchorage and there were only 1200 people in the area. ^{Fay} Mrs. Hurley talked about how Julian was offered a position in Fairbanks. She didn't want to move there because of the extremely cold temperatures. They moved to Fairbanks in 1924 after two years in Anchorage. Julian talked about the oldest attorney in Alaska.
