Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you, and for your father's generous contribution of knowledge to the Oral History Archives. We welcome the opportunity to have the audio recording made with Mark Hunt on September 27, 1967 and as Oral History 202-00-60 001-42 in our collection. The Oral History Archives agrees to preserve this recording and make it available to the public.

In consideration of the role of the Archives in preserving and making your recording available, we ask you to agree to the following:

I, William (Bill) Hunt, am the son of the late Mark Hunt. I transfer and convey to the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Rasmuson Library my title, interest, and copyright, if any, to the recording.

I also agree to hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks harmless for how it makes the recordings available and how it preserves them. I further acknowledge that I have been informed of the following:

- The Oral History Program makes recordings available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library may make this recording electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.
- While the Library only intends to make the recordings available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form I release the Library and the University from liability in cases where individuals who access a recording might violate these conditions.
