License Agreement

Alaska Public Media, the parent organization for KSKA-FM 91.1 and the Alaska Public Radio Network (APRN), hereby grants to the:

Alaska Resources Library and Information Services (ARLIS)
Alaska State Library
NOAA (Auke Bay) Lab
University of Alaska Anchorage
University of Alaska Fairbanks (Elmer E. Rasmuson Library)
Valdez Public Library

a perpetual, non-exclusive, royalty free, paid-up, worldwide license to them for use of KSKA and APRN audio recordings created between March 24, 1989 and April 26, 1989 (a copy of a listing of the records are attached hereto), that are currently held in the above institutions. The above institutions are expressly authorized to make these recordings available through their programs, via access and preservation purposes through any means available, including but not limited to electronic means and the Internet, to researchers, writers, scholars, students and the interested public. The recordings shall be available only for educational and/or noncommercial purposes, and are not for broadcast or sale without the express written consent of KSKA or APRN. Credit shall be given to KSKA or APRN, as appropriate, in any public use of these recordings.

Enclosed are the Public Radio audio tapes on the Valdez Oil Spill. Included are 3 indexes: tape number, date & reporter. A key word index will be produced in the near future.

In addition to the Alaska State Library, copies of the tapes will be available at: UAF, UAA, Alaska Resources Library, Valdez Public Library, and the NOAA (Auke Bay) Lab in Juneau.

Key to sources: APRN = Alaska Public Radio Network
 NPR = National Radio Network
 KT00 = Juneau Public Radio Station
 KCHU = Valdez Public Radio Station

If you have any questions, please contact Sherry Tabor (465-2458) at the Alaska State Library or Bill Legere (585-1670) at KT00.
