

Interview w/ Effie Kokine
10/25/01.

This is the third in a series of interviews w/ Effie Kokine about her life. These interviews are meant to complement the recordings made ^{earlier} by Patti Bowen. In this session, held at the ORAL sources class, Effie tells about getting married, her first years of marriage, WWII, raising children, her decision to move to Fairbanks, the establishment of her ~~sewing~~ ^{Career Sewing} business, and how her ~~work~~ ^{work} enabled her to buy a house. Dog racing in Tanana and in Fairbanks is also discussed and Effie tells how good she felt when she was mushing - She also tells about how to treat dogs.

The class asks questions and Effie generously responds -
