Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you for your generous contribution of knowledge to the Oral History Archives. We welcome the opportunity to have the audio recordings made with the Joe Sikvayugak Dance Group and the Barrow Eskimo Dance Group in 1972 and 1979 respectively. The Oral History Archives agrees to preserve your recordings and make them available to the public.

In consideration of the role of the Archives in preserving and making your recordings available, we ask you to agree to the following:

I, Fred Elavgak on behalf of the Barrow Eskimo Dance Group, transfer to the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Rasmuson Library our title, interest, and copyright to the recordings.

We also agree not to hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks liable for how it makes the recordings available and how it preserves them. We further acknowledge that we have been informed of the following:

- The Oral History Program makes recordings available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library may make this recording electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.
- While the Library only intends to make the recordings available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form we release the Library and the University from liability in cases where individuals who access a recording might violate these conditions.

Please be assured that we will do all that we can to inform users of these conditions and thereby minimize the potential for misuse. None of the above mentioned conditions restricts you from re-telling and/or recording again any of the information you gave on this recording.

I have read and accept both the terms of the Oral History Gift and Release agreement as well as the Interview Restrictions listed on the reverse side of this document.
