

Photograph Use Agreement

I, Pete Merry (name) hereby grant the National Park Service and the University of Alaska Fairbanks, Oral History Program the right to use digital copies of the following photographs from my personal collection for the <sup>Gateway Park Project</sup> ~~Katmai~~ National Park Project Jukebox. This is a multi-media, interactive computer program that will use audio or video recordings, photographs, maps, and written texts to tell the story of the people, events and places that have made history in and around the Park. Copies of the Jukebox will be available at the Park, the National Park Service offices, at the University of Alaska Fairbanks, and on local and World Wide Web sites, as well as on future electronic means of presenting information. By signing below, I agree to these possible uses.

Due credit will be provided in the Jukebox to the undersigned as the owner and loaner of the photographs. By signing this agreement, I agree not to hold the University or the National Park Service responsible for any possible misuse of the images by people who access the Jukebox.
