

5/6/04. John Gaedeke .

Two interviews US done at the Pasarsuaq ^{Iniakuk} library.

John and his mother, Pat run ~~Iniakuk~~ Wilderness Lodge in the Brooks Range. This is an interview where John talks about growing up at the lake, the evolution from guiding hunters to guiding ecotourists. He tells about what it takes to maintain the lodge, get it set up and cater to the clients who visit.

He talks about the ~~old~~ how people adapt to the wilderness, the activities they offer and how they supply the lodge. John is a photojournalist and ^{some} his photos accompany the recording.

[This recording is part of the Costed
The Arctic Fulcrum Series]