This is an interview w/ Bonnie Wortes. She and her husband, Bill, were <sup>Presbyterian</sup> missionaries ~~to~~ to the North Slope in the 1950's. In this interview she describes their work in Barrow and how her husband began work with people in Anaktuvuk Pass. There is a very good description of establishing the church in Anaktuvuk pass and how the men hauled the logs into the community.

Bonnie was accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Denise Wortes and Dequita Lawhead, a member of the Presbyterian Church here in Fairbanks
