Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you for your generous contribution of knowledge to the Oral History Archives. We welcome the opportunity to have the (audio or video) recordings made by you in Spring Semester 2000. The Oral History Archives agrees to preserve your recordings and make them available to the public.

In consideration of the role of the Archives in preserving and making your recordings available, we ask you to agree to the following:

I, Hiroko Ikuta, transfer to the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Rasmuson Library my title, interest, and copyright to the individual and in-class interviews I made with Elena Charles and Whitter Williams as part of my Alaska Native Studies 401 class and the transcripts thereof.

I also agree not to hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks liable for how it makes the recordings available and how it preserves them. I further acknowledge that I have been informed of the following:

- The Oral History Program makes recordings available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library may make this recording electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.
- While the Library only intends to make the recordings available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form I release the Library and the University from liability in cases where individuals who access a recording might violate these conditions.

Please be assured that we will do all that we can to inform users of these conditions and thereby minimize the potential for misuse. None of the above mentioned conditions restricts you from re-telling and/or recording again any of the information you gave on these recordings.
