RELEASE

AUTHORIZATION TO REPRODUCE AND ARCHIVE PHYSICAL LIKENESS, AUDIO RECORDINGS, AND VIDEO RECORDINGS

The Alaska Humanities Forum is photographing and recording on audio and videotape the Nome Storytelling Symposium (February 3, 10, 16-17, 1996). The recordings and likenesses may be used for a variety of purposes, including but not limited to the following, which will be for the benefit of the public:

- A booklet containing partial narratives, photographs, and a description of the symposium
- A videotape describing the symposium
- Possible future broadcasts on radio or television
- Computer graphics program
- Photo display

In addition, the recordings and photographs will be archived at the University of Alaska Fairbanks Oral History Archives (Elmer E. Rasmuson Library) and the Carrie McLain Museum at Nome.

The undersigned agrees to allow the use of the photographs, video images, and audio recordings for the above purposes. The undersigned further understands that when the material becomes the property of the Rasmuson Library and the Carrie McLain Museum it will be made available to researchers, writers, scholars, and the interested public. Any proceeds received by the Alaska Humanities Forum, the Nome Communities of Memory project, or the Rasmuson Library from the sale, production, or other use of the materials collected will be used only for this or similar not-for-profit folklore, oral history, or storytelling projects.

Further stipulations and restrictions may be made below.
