Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you for your generous contribution of knowledge to the Oral History Archives. We welcome the opportunity to have the (audio or video) recording made with you on 5/21/11. The Oral History Archives agrees to preserve your recording and make it available to the public.

In consideration of the role of the Archives in preserving and making your recording available, we ask you to agree to the following:

I, Aliy Zirkle, transfer to the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Rasmuson Library my title, interest, and copyright to the recording.

I also agree not to hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks liable for how it makes the recordings available and how it preserves them. I further acknowledge that I have been informed of the following:

- The Oral History Program makes recordings available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library may make this recording electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.
- While the Library only intends to make the recordings available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form I release the Library and the University from liability in cases where individuals who access a recording might violate these conditions.

Please be assured that we will do all that we can to inform users of these conditions and thereby minimize the potential for misuse. None of the above mentioned conditions restricts you from re-telling and/or recording again any of the information you gave on this recording.

On May 31, 2011, Robert Drozda

interviewed Abby Zirkle & Allen Moore

as part of the Dog mushing jubilee.

They are both long distance racers and share a kennel and have in two Rivers. In this interview they discuss dog care and technology. The interview was done in their home and includes "Rosie" one of their dogs. Rosie demonstrates harness design,

& dog blankets. ~~and~~ Although she is a female,
she also demonstrates how they use fox
fails to protect male dogs' [genitals]
