Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you for your generous contribution of knowledge to the Oral History Archives. We welcome the opportunity to have the audio/video recording made with Sharon Bushell for use within The Spill Personal Stories from the Exxon Valdez Disaster by Sharon Bushelle & Stan Jones. The Oral History Archives agrees to preserve these recordings and make them available to the public.

In consideration of the role of the Archives in preserving and making these recordings available, we ask you to agree to the following:

I, Jane Eisemann, agree to allow having my interview with Sharon Bushell conducted on Sept 18, 2007 to be used as part of the Exxon Valdez Project Jukebox. I understand that my interview and transcript will be digitized and made available to the public over the Internet as part of the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Project Jukebox.

I also agree not to hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks or the Prince William Sound Regional Citizens' Advisory Council liable for how it makes the recordings available and how it preserves them. I further acknowledge that I have been informed of the following:

- The Oral History Program makes recordings, maps and images available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library may make this map electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.
- While the Library only intends to make the map available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form I release the Library, the University, and the Prince William Sound Regional Citizens' Advisory Council from liability in cases where individuals who access recordings, maps and images might violate these conditions.
