Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you for your generous contribution of knowledge to the Oral History Archives. We welcome the opportunity to have the audio recording made with you both on 4/24/99. The Oral History Archives agrees to preserve your recording and make it available to the public.

In consideration of the role of the Archives in preserving and making your recording available, we ask you to agree to the following:

We, Terry Whittlesey and Diane Whittlesey, transfer and convey to the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Rasmuson Library any of our title, interest, and copyright, if any, to the recording.

We also agree to hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks harmless for how it makes the recordings available and how it preserves them. We further acknowledge that we have been informed of the following:

- The Oral History Program makes recordings available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library may make this recording electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.
- While the Library only intends to make the recordings available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form we release the Library and the University from liability in cases where individuals who access a recording might violate these conditions.
