Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you for your generous contribution of knowledge to the Oral History Archives. We welcome the opportunity to have the audio recording made with your late mother, Mildred Hogan, on 8/20/99. The Oral History Archives agrees to preserve your recording and make it available to the public.

In consideration of the role of the Archives in preserving and making your recording available, we ask you to agree to the following:

I, Beverly Morse, transfer and convey to the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Rasmuson Library any of my or my late mother's title, interest, and copyright, if any, to the recording.

I also agree to hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks harmless for how it makes the recordings available and how it preserves them. I further acknowledge that I have been informed of the following:

- The Oral History Program makes recordings available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library may make this recording electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.
- While the Library only intends to make the recordings available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form I release the Library and the University from liability in cases where individuals who access a recording might violate these conditions.

Interview Restrictions

Interviews accepted into the University of Alaska Fairbanks Oral History Collection must be available for public use. We cannot accept recordings where:

1. The narrator or other body must be consulted prior to each use of the interview. Such a restriction severely reduces the circulation and usefulness of the tape and makes long term management impossible.
2. Individuals and/or members of particular groups are forbidden to use the interview. Both the UAF Oral History Program and the Rasmuson Library are firmly committed to the principles of intellectual freedom and will not accept any form of discrimination.
3. The interviewer and/or narrator prohibits the UAF Oral History Program from making copies of the interviews and/or insists upon retaining the right to sell copies. We need to be able to make copies of interviews for circulation, preservation, transcription purposes and for the narrators and their families.
4. Multiple narrators appear on a recording without a signed Oral History Gift and Release form from each narrator. Each narrator on the recording must sign a release.

We do allow some limited restrictions to be placed on certain interviews under the following circumstances:

1. Interviews to be used in a book or other publication project can be restricted from public use for no more than two years. At the end of two years, the tapes will be made available to the public regardless of whether or not anything has been published.
2. Officials can restrict public access to their own interviews until they leave public office provided that they will be leaving office in two years or less. At the end of two years, the tape will be made available to the public regardless of whether or not they have left office.
3. Radio programs typically retain rebroadcast rights to interviews that they have produced unless they choose to relinquish that right to the UAF Oral History Program.
