Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you for your generous contribution of knowledge to the UAF Oral History Archives and to the Seldovia Village Tribe. We welcome the opportunity to have the audio/video recording made with Lou Collier on 8/20/2014. The UAF Oral History Archives and Seldovia Village Tribe agree to preserve your recording and make it available to the public.

In consideration of the role of the UAF Archives and the Seldovia Village Tribe in preserving and making your recording available, we ask you to agree to the following:

I, Lou Collier, transfer and convey to the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Rasmuson Library ("the Library") and the Seldovia Village Tribe my title, interest, and copyright, if any, to the recording.

I also agree to hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks and the Seldovia Village Tribe harmless for how it makes the recordings available and how it preserves them. I further acknowledge that I have been informed of the following:

- The UAF Oral History Program and the Seldovia Village Tribe make recordings available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library and Seldovia Village Tribe may make this recording electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.
- While the Library and Seldovia Village Tribe only intend to make the recordings available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form I release the Library, the University and the Seldovia Village Tribe from liability in cases where individuals who access a recording might violate these conditions.

None of the above-mentioned conditions restricts you from re-telling and/or recording again any of the information you gave on this recording.

I have read and accept both the terms of the Oral History Gift and Release agreement as well as the Interview Restrictions provided.
