ORAL HISTORY AGREEMENT

I, Arthur Snowden, do hereby grant to the Alaska Court System (hereinafter "court") the right to record my oral history memoir, and to retain the recordings and transcript as part of the public record in their archives and/or the archives of the Alaska Bar Association's Historians Committee. It is agreed that access to the tape recordings and transcript shall be available to researchers and members of the public for educational purposes at the court's discretion. It is further agreed that the court shall have the authority to edit, publish and authorize the use of my oral history memoir in any manner that the court considers appropriate. I waive claim to any title, literary rights including copyright, or royalties that might legally attach to this material. This agreement does not preclude any use that I may want to make of the information in the recordings myself.
