Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you for your generous contribution of knowledge to the Oral History Archives. We welcome the opportunity to have the video recordings made with you as part of the Kotzebue Communities of Memory project. The Oral History Archives agrees to preserve these recordings and make them available to the public. In consideration of the role of the Archives in preserving and making these recordings available, we ask you to agree to the following:

I, Jonas Ramoth, transfer and convey to the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Rasmuson Library my title, interest, and copyright, if any, to the recording.

I also agree to hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks harmless for how it makes the recordings available and how it preserves them. I further acknowledge that I have been informed of the following:

- The Oral History Program makes recordings available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library may make this recording electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.
- While the Library only intends to make the recordings available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form I release the Library and the University from liability in cases where individuals who access a recording might violate these conditions.

None of the above mentioned conditions restricts you from re-telling and/or recording again any of the information you gave on this recording.

I have read and accept both the terms of the Oral History Gift and Release agreement as well as the Interview Restrictions provided.

Several attempts to contact Jonas Ramoth were made by Leslie McCartney and Linda Joule throughout 2017. Those contacted who knew Mr. Ramoth indicated he was in a nursing home in either Anchorage or Wasilla. Neither Leslie or Linda ever heard back from Mr. Ramonth.

The following email exchange is between Linda Joule and Leslie McCartney:

I ran into Jonas Ramoth at the Anchorage ANMC hospital about 2 weeks ago. He gave verbal permission to me to sign the release of information on the papers. So did Elder Helen Wells to her grandson/Son James Wells. Can either you or Martha whiting email me a blank form as I am not working now. My new email is lindacjoule@gmail.com. There was one witness each. Jonas' sister Irene Stalker and James Wells. Thanks. Hope it's not too late.

You can text me at this
Phone anytime.

Linda, this is WONDERFUL news! No not too late at all. I'm thrilled about this. I think what is okay is if I put this email on a form and that will be good enough for us and no need for us to actually send something as the email says it all. If you agree, let me know, I'm so grateful to you for following upon this. All the best and I hope you not working for retirement reasons,
Leslie
