Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you for your generous contribution to the Oral History Archives. We welcome the opportunity to have the glass disc audio recordings made with Mike and Parascovia Lokinan in December 1945. (These glass discs were made by Verne Ray and came to the University of Alaska of Fairbanks Alaska Polar Regions Archives and Collections from the Dorothy Jean Ray Collection). The Oral History Archives agrees to preserve your recording and make it available to the public.

In consideration of the role of the Archives in preserving and making your recording available, we ask you to agree to the following:

I, Archie Lokinan am the son of Mike and Parascovia Lokinan and I transfer and convey to the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Rasmuson Library my title, interest, and copyright, if any, to the recording.

I also agree to hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks harmless for how it makes the recordings available and how it preserves them. I further acknowledge that I have been informed of the following:

- The Oral History Program makes recordings available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library may make this recording electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.

but not through library catalog or directly online.

- While the Library only intends to make the recordings available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form I release the Library and the University from liability in cases where individuals who access a recording might violate these conditions.

None of the above mentioned conditions restricts you from re-telling and/or recording again any of the information you gave on this recording.

I have read and accept both the terms of the Oral History Gift and Release agreement as well as the Interview Restrictions provided.
