Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you for your generous contribution of knowledge to the Oral History Archives. We welcome the opportunity to have the audio/video recording made with Art Chase on Jan 2016. The Oral History Archives agrees to preserve your recording and make it available to the public.

Rob Inouye →

Patrick Durand, Martin Guboski

In consideration of the role of the Archives in preserving and making your recording available, we ask you to agree to the following:

we Patrick Durand, Martin Guboski, Rob Inouye

I, + Art Chase, transfer and convey to the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Rasmuson Library ^{our} my title, interest, and copyright, if any, to the recording.

we I also agree hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks harmless for how it makes the recordings available and how it preserves them. I further acknowledge that I have been informed of the following: we

- The Oral History Program makes recordings available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library may make this recording electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.
- While the Library only intends to make the recordings available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form I release the Library and the University from liability in cases where individuals who access a recording might violate these conditions.
