INTERVIEW AGREEMENT FOR National Park Service Oral History Project

This agreement is entered into by Terje "Ted" G. Birkedal, interviewee, and the National Park Service. Both parties enter into this agreement in order to facilitate the future use of the oral history interview conducted on this date, January 3, 2020, for research, historical, and educational purposes.

The National Park Service conducts oral history interviews as part of its research, education, and interpretive programs. Audio and/or video recordings and transcripts resulting from interviews conducted for the National Park Service become part of its museum and archival collections and are housed at the most appropriate repositories. They will be made available for National Park Service uses and may be made available to members of the public. Typical uses may include publications, audio/video recording in all existing and future media, interpretive talks, public exhibits, Web sites, online venues, and other media deemed appropriate.

Interviewee:

1. Consents to voluntarily participate in this interview as provided by this agreement.
2. Authorizes the National Park Service to record, transcribe, and edit the interview, and to use and re-use the interview recording and transcript in whole or in part.
3. Understands that the National Park Service shall have no obligation to use the interview and has no expectation of financial compensation for participation in this project.
4. Agrees to give and assign all rights, title, and interest, including copyright, of whatever kind from this information and interview to the National Park Service.
