

Index of Emily Rosenthal's interview of Charles Brower, October 3, 2022

Subject	dates (approx)	transcript pages	recording start
Childsplay in Barrow and Browerville, living near Aunt Sadie, sod houses and coal	1945-1955	pages 2-5	0:00:51.0
North Slope children of all ages were flown to boarding schools in southeast Alaska	1955	pages 5-7	0:09:07.0
Charley's prior experience traveling outside of Barrow with family	1945-1955	pages 7-8	0:13:12.0
Contact with prior generations of Browers	1969 & later	pages 8-9	0:15:35.0
Childsplay in Barrow and Browerville, bilingual home, mother's sewing crafts, blended and extended family relationships	1945-1955	pages 9-11	0:17:58.0
At Wrangell and Mt. Edgecumbe; mother's death; Summers during boarding school years; North Slope connections; bicycles	1955-1963	pages 11-17	0:24:56.0
early telephone calls	late 50's- 1968	page 14	0:30:36.0
string game while pastor	2000's	page 15	0:32:32.0
missing out on teenage subsistence experience and skills; missing a loving family; after graduation, BIA sends Charles for technical training in L.A.	1955-1965	page 16-17	0:34:19.0
Church experience from childhood through boarding school	1945-1955	page17-21	0:37:53.0
More experience at Wrangell and Mt. Edgecumbe; encouraging teacher; other families' experience; intolerance of native language; chores, extracurricular activities	1955-1963	page21-26	0:44:53.0
When social ills of alcohol violence, and suicide begin in Barrow	1955-1963	page 26	0:54:00.0
Landing in Los Angeles, city night lights prompts Charley's experience of electric lights, radio, tv, telephone, movie theaters, and dancing	1963	pages 27-30	0:57:00:0
Training to be an electronics technician, navigating L.A. until school moved to NYC, and Charles was put up in Newark, NJ tenement. Violence drives Charley to apply to college; got draft notice, joined the Navy	1963-1964	page 30-31	1:02:37.0
Navy experience from boot camp at Great Lakes to aircraft carriers on the South China Sea during Vietnam War	1964-1968	pages 31-34	1:04:52.0
Janet comes to Barrow as Public Health Nurse in training; interacts with Sadie; learns Navy man from Barrow wants news from home; From letters to courting when Charles leaves the Navy.	1966-1968	pages 34-39	1:08:54.0
Charles witnesses Alaska becoming a state	1959	pages 39-41	1:17:44.0
Janet's interactions with Sadie and Charles' trip to Janet's home	1966-1968	Pages 41-43	1:20:12.0
after leaving Navy, called back to Barrow to work on ice islands	1968	pages 43-44	1:24:03.0
Change in sea ice over time	1968, 1992, present	pages 44-45	1:25:36.0
Charley in whaling crew	1992-present	Pages 45-46	1:26:27.0
marriage, California, BS, career working for military contractors in California and Massachusetts, raised four sons.	1968-1991	pages 46-51	1:28:11.0
Moved back to Alaska; Drawn to UMC church and pastor focused on Outreach, help a Siberian Yupik community	1997-1998	page 52-54	1:33:56.0
Charley heads subsidiary of ASRC, explains Alaskan Native for-profit corporations, that contract to perform services in or outside of Alaska. Contracts to maintain military bases in the southern Pacific and also to make over Iļisaġvik College.	1992-2010	pages 55-61	1:37:38.0

Index of Emily Rosenthal's interview of Charles Brower, October 3, 2022

Subject	dates (approx)	transcript pages	recording start
Charles started MBA course in Massachusetts, finished in Anchorage, worked at labs in Lexington and Cambridge, Massachusetts	1990-1992	pages 61-62	1:46:40.0
Charles stopped working for ASRC corporations after last contract.	2010	page 62	1:47:56.0
After retiring from ASRC, unusual road from lay pastor to certified pastor, outreach to native people, "Giving Voice." lay pastor, local pastor, and differences in denominations, working together. Requirements beyond faith. Became Pastor in Nome UMC	mid 90's -2019	pages 62-70	1:48:03.0
Trying alternatives in the North Slope, IAM, Singsperations	2019-present	pages 69-70	1:59:10.0
Charley historic explains power of church over native education, and consequences	1885	pages 70-74	2:04:24.0
About Eben Hopson's influence on his family and legacy	lived 1922-1980	pages 74-77	2:12:57.0
Sadie's approach to her job, and other anecdotes, Sadie's Camp		pages 77-81	2:14:55.0
marriage norms		page 82	2:21:52.0
photo of young Sadie and more anecdotes		pages 83-84	2:24:36.0
gender roles		pages 85-89	2:27:54.0
Korean War memories		pages 87-89	2:29:24.0
Isolated villages, and boarding school connections, inter-generational fears		pages 90-93	2:33:43.0
Charley's siblings' schooling, his knowledge of father's (and Sadie's) generation and roles in the family		pages 94-97	2:38:21.0