

Remembers talk of Klondike Kate and remembers seeing her.

(Louie Black wanders back into the conversation again and talks about a former Dawson bartender named Bismark who went to Flat)

Fairbanks fire of 1906: Charley was getting a haircut across the street where fire started and saw the thing start..and burn!

Creamers Dairy at one time milked 110 cows. Charley bought first tractor in 1934...at the last he had four farm tractors and two tracked tractors.

Has only one son Donald of Fairbanks. Seven grandchildren, two of whom are married, and all living in Fairbanks.

Last time Charley went out side Alaska was in 1940 (Outside).

Talks about Mike Yankovich and his farm. Talks about some of the bootleggers in Fairbanks during prohibition days.